Green Leaf Tip: This year the "Morning After Mess Cleanup Day" is on Monday, July 5 from 8 a.m. to 11 a.m. You can help keep Pacific Beach clean meet at the end of PB Drive on the beach. Bring your own bucket to fill with trash, if you can, to reduce the amount of garbage bags ending up in landfills.

Beach Camp: Is HERE! If you remember going to camp or sending your children, you know the memories and friendship you make. You are also invited to join them in an activity, a meal or evening worship. Beach Camp is in need of surfboards and other recreational beach equipment in new or good condition. Please feel free to contact Eric Howard, Beach Camp Director at eric155@gmail.com or the church office.

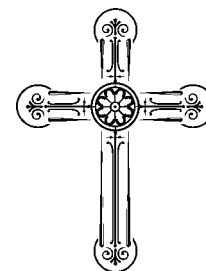

Nursery Available: We welcome children at worship, but if you prefer, you may take your infant or toddler to our nursery. Paggers are available for parents' "peace of mind." The nursery is available from 9:00—11:45 a.m.

Name the Room contest: We are looking for a new name for the classroom that has been lovingly known as the "yellow" room. It originally got its name when we had a preschool here. Now that it has been renovated we would like to give it a new name. Put your suggestion in the box located in the narthex.

Mark your calendars for Tuesday, July 27th at 7pm. We will have the pleasure of hosting a spectacular choir concert by the South End Wales Children's Choirs and the Pacific Harmony Men's Barbershop Group. Also during the evening concert we will all sing an arrangement of the hymn "How Great Thou Art" written and directed by Paula Mowbray. A free-will offering will be taken.

CCSA Current Needs: Our church is accepting donations for our needy neighbors: family and individual sized hygiene products, including shampoo, soap, tooth paste/brush, razor, and sunscreen. Please put your donation in the CCSA box in the narthex or drop off in the church office. Thank you!

ELCA Malaria Project: This past summer, the ELCA Church-wide Assembly affirmed support for the Malaria Initiative. Faith Talk:

Discuss in your household or small group:

- Share about a special trip you remember taking.
- Imagine for a moment that Jesus sent you and a partner to another place to tell others about him. How would you do it? What would you do first? Who would you want as your partner?
- Do you find it hard to talk to others about God? Why or why not?

Devotional Practices:

Make up a poster with the heading "A Name Written in Heaven" (see Luke 10:20). Each time you gather for home devotions this week, have a time of prayer for a members of your church or for your Christian friends – thank God for them and pray for their individual needs. Then add their names to the poster.

Service:

St. Paul says "Let us not become weary in doing good ... As we have opportunity, let us do good to all people, especially to those who belong to the family of believers." What opportunities do you have to do good this week – in your church, neighborhood, school or places of work? Plan one way that you can "do good" as a household this week.

Rituals and Traditions:

When Jesus sent out seventy-two of his followers ahead of him he said that upon entering a house they were to say "Peace to this house." Practice a homecoming greeting this week as a household. When a household member returns home from school or work, share this greeting with one another – "God's peace be with you: And with you too." You might want to add a touch of blessing, a hug or a kiss of greeting.

Parent Toolbox: Ideas for Growing Your Household in Mission

- When you gather, share any opportunities for witnessing to Christ you had during the day – at home, at work, at school, in the neighborhood.
- Discuss as a household the prospective spiritual interest of individuals in your work, neighborhood, school, or family circles.
- Start a prayer list with the names of three people you would like to see come to faith in Jesus.
- Invite your neighbors for a meal at your home. Get to know them and their needs.
- Make your home a welcoming place for your children's friends.
- Encourage your children to invite their friends to your congregation's children's or youth programs, or to come to Sunday worship with your household.
